BROADWAY TREATRE.—It is doubtful whether so much consistion was ever before created in this city by any specials, as has been produced by the legendary equations drams of "Berne, the Hunter." It filled the Bowery for a month, and at the Broadway, where it has been got up in magnificent style, it draw densely accords houses throughout the past week. Indeed, so great is the anxiety of the public to witcome "Berne" that manager Marshall has found it necessary to open his box book for securing seats three days in advance of the performance. He announces the spectacle every night until further netice.

Ninco's Garden.—The admirers of the unexcelled pantominic performances, wonderful gymnastic feats, marvellous tricks and astounding transformations of the kavels will be gratified to learn that M. Ant ins has so far receivered from his recent accident as to warrant too manager in announcing "The Et! Cing?" for to-morrow evening. This is one of the ruest gorgeous spectacles ever produced at this eats lishment, which long ago became celebrated for its beautiful scenic representations, and, to add to its merits, it is performed by the Ravelsin a style unsurpassed by their previous efforts. The opening piece is "hatey, the Vivandiere," in which Mile Ro ert appears.

BOWERT THEATEN.—Despite the fact that many have been disappoited by the withdrawal of the exciting drama f "Herne, the Hunter," for the purpose of producing it in Boston, Manager Waldron seems determined to satisfy his patrons by the rapid production of a series of novel ties that cannot well fail to prove highly attractive. The musements to morrow evening will commence with the beautiful four act romance entitles "The Broken Yow," cast to the entire strength of the company—Mr. and Mrs. Ward. Messrs. 'amb, Barry, Fitzgerald and Strong, Mrs. Bingham and Misses Alford and Denham in leading parts. The new and very cowical burlesque of the "Female Forty Thieves" will follow.

Bingham and Misses Alford and Denham in leading pacts. The new and very cowical burleaque of the "Female Forty Thieves" will follow.

Buxrox's Theathe.—Mrs. C. Howard, who has gained a fine reputation in the South, both as an actress and a vecalist, since she left our city, some years ago will make her first appearance to morrow evening as Franciae, in Planche's elegant comedy called "Grist to the Mill;" she will be supported by Mesers. Perry, Bradley, Reynolds and others. While in New Orleans Mrs. Howard wan the enviable title of "The Pet of the South;" consequently, unusually fine delineations of character may be expected. Previous to the comedy, the farce called "Urgent Private Alfairs"—Mr. Burton as Denistus Dotts. The entertainments will close with the comicality known as "Burton's New York Intectory"—Mr. Burton as Pleadilly.

LAURA KEENE'S VARIETIES.—The great success of this popular theatre since the opening under the present management, instead of causing a relaxation of the energies of Miss Keene, as is too often the case with persons who are eminently prosperous, appears to have the very gratifying effect of stimulating her to still greater exertion, with the very laudable desire of retaining the good opinion of her numerous parrons. She tenders an unexceptionable bill for to morrow might,—Lovell's comedy of "Look Before You Leep,"—leading characters by Misses Keene, Reignolds, Durand, Wells and Lee, and Mesers, Jordan, Johnston, Bass and Clarke. The successful burlesque of "Novelty" follows.

WALLACK'S THEATRE—Fine comedies, well played and moun ed, and following one another in rapid succession, still constitute the order of amusement at this favorite establishment. Planche's comedy, called "The Knights of the Round Table," which has been highly lauded by the British prees, will be produced here for the first time in this country, to morrow night. The cast embraces the names of Mesers. Lester, Dyot. Brougham Walsot, Norton and Stewart, and Mrs. Hoey and Miss Gannon. This is a sufficient guarantee tha

'Naisd Queen," also performed by children, will precede the farce.

Wood's Ministerials.—This popular band of merrymakers have made a complete change in their programme of songs, dances, &c., for the coming week. George, Pierce and Vaughn appear to have had quite a happy time among the macilves latery, in consequence of their reunion; and what is still better, had the pleasure of causing their spectaturs to participate in their hilarity. The copular burlesque of "The Happy Man, or treaty with Japan," constitutes the afterpiece for to-morrow evening.

BUCKIN'S SHANADESS continue to be visited by large numbers of mugical commissers, as well as multitudes of fur lovers who "xhibit their appreciation of the jotes perpetreted by Swaine and Bishop Backiey, by hearly laugater. The laughing song of the former never fails to convulve the audience with merrimen. To-morrow evening they tender this, and many others of their best songs, together with the musical burletta of "The Two Pompeys," in which Swaine and Bishop personate the heroes, supported by Miss Millen and others.

China and Japan.—The paneramic illustrations of pro-

Pompeys," in which Swains and Rishop personate the heroes, supported by Miss Millen and others.

China and Japan.—The paneramic illustrations of prominent recuse in these countries, including an admirable view of C un Perry's fleet while at anchor in the bay of Yedo, have recently attracted the attention of numerous wisiters. It is pleasing to learn that, among others, many chool children have lately been entertained and instructed by these pictures, and as this is an easy and cheap method of imparting instruction, it is hoped that arrangements will be made to enable most of the scholars in the cty to see these performances before they are withdrawn. The paneramass will bereatter be crimited at the Atheraum, commencing on Wednesday.

The Symbital Excension.—Prof. Spencer, who created considerable astonishment, combined with a great deal of meriment, by his exposition of the tricks recorted to by spiritualists and their mediums, at the Tabernocle on thursday evening, will give another lecture at the same place to morrow night. As a proof of his ability to demonstrate that soiritualism is nothing wore nor less than an arrant imposition upon the credulty of macking, the Professor offers one thousand dollars to any medium who can perform a feat that the former cannot accomplish or rival, through the mediumship of sone person selected from the audience.

masses of the party, but Senator Hunter is actively and warmly supported by the Virginia delegation in Congress. The friends of Wise are to a man the friends of Buchanan, whilst Mr. Hunter's advicates swear by the seart arministration. Here it is charged that Hunter Douglas and Pierce are working in the same team to undermine Buchanan, whilst the fortupes of Wise and Buchanan, for good or bad, are the same. The friends of Hunter will endeavor in the State Convention, to get a cordial endorsement of Pierce's administration, whilst these of Wise will aim to confine the commensation to his annual and Kanasa messages. The two leading democratic newsparers are said to differ in their preferences between Wise and Hunter. The E-taminer has declared for Buchanan, and is said to orefer Wise. It is rumored that there is trouble in the E-taminer's camp, as its principal contributor and part owner, har. Aylett, a lawyer of this city, is said to side with the Hunter party against Wise and Buchanan. The Origin of Yellow Fever in Norfolk. TO THE EDITOR OF THE BERALD.

The city of Norfolk recently appointed a committee for the city of Norick recently appointed to the origin of yellow fever here last summer. The steamer Bon Franklin, being supposed an infected vessel, and having recently aring supposed an infected vessel, and having recently arrived in port when the disease made its appearance, has become a subject of close examination. Particulars relative to the health of this vessel during her voyage in June last from St. Thon as, have been diigen ly sought by our Committee of investigation, but thus far without success. Numerous letters have been addressed by mage Secretary to persons who were passengers on board the steamer. These letters, sithough cornectly desiring information, have not in a single instance received any reply; and I am now instructed to request the you would lesert in your widely circulated paper and under the editorial column, a few lines in regard to the important business above mentioned. It may be done by simply Centring that any individual who was on board toe Ben Franklin steamer during her voyage from St. Thomas in June, 1866, would please to communicate to me such a fact, together, with any knowledge as to the existence of disease, and its kind, which may have been present. Mr. Pickett has already given to the public his statement, which it is necessary to confirm by other witnesses.

Yellow Fever, &c., &c.

HUSBAND SOLD FOR $500.—The Cleveland Plaindaler tells the following:—A lady passed through here a few days since in hot pursuit of her husband, who had been smitten with a smart stack of passional attraction, and had run away with another woman, from Wooming county, N. Y., to lordine county. She took a brace of officers from this city, and went to Elmira Inegration of the first property with a nephew, to effect a diversion with the enemy, and took the care for the South. On reflection, he suspected the honesty of his nephew and took the next train back to lock after his money. Here he encountered the pursuing party, and negotiations were opened. It resulted in the lady's selling out all her right, title and good will in and to her husband, and his purchasing a dishonorable peace, for $500. The lacy returned to Wyoming without husband, but with a pocketful of rocks.

It is stated that the city of Louisville has subscribed one million of dollars, in bonds, to the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company, of which $500,000 are to be delivered in April next, $250,000 in October, and $250,000 in April, 1857-for the in. terest of which the city has levied a tax in addition to the Railroad Company's liability. In addition to this the company, from other counties in the States of Tennessee and Kentucky, has bonds to the amount of $1,400,000, and $450,000 from the State of Tennessee, making $2,850,000 in all. The road is estimated to cost $5,500,000, and the above subscriptions, together with the individual subscrip tions, it is calculated, will complete the road. Thirty miles of the road are at present in operation, constructed at a cost of $1,000,000.
